MAYS LANDING – An Egg Harbor City man entered guilty pleas Friday to seven residential burglaries and will be sentenced to 15 years in prison, Atlantic County Prosecutor Ted Housel announced.

Frederick Greenemeier, 55, admitted during the plea hearing before Superior Court Judge James Isman that from October to November 2008, he burglarized homes in several Atlantic County. In addition, he admitted that he attempted to escape from the Atlantic County Justice Facility while incarcerated for these burglaries, according to Assistant Prosecutor Janet Gravitz.

The defendant will be sentenced on May 29. He must serve five years of the 15-year prison term before parole eligibility. He also waived his right to appeal the prison sentence.

On Nov. 30, 2008 Hamilton Township police and New Jersey State Police arrested Greenemeier near his Egg Harbor City home. Greenemeier has remained at the Atlantic County Justice Facility in lieu of bail pending further proceedings.
