EHT MAN CHARGED WITH STRICT LIABILITY DRUG INDUCED DEATH IN CONNECTION TO MAN'S 2016 FATAL OVERDOSE

MAYS LANDING –An Egg Harbor Township man was charged with first degree Strict Liability Drug Induced Death and first degree Leader of a Narcotics Trafficking Network during the execution of a search warrant on Tuesday morning at the Bayview Inn & Suites on Albany Avenue in Atlantic City, Atlantic County Prosecutor Damon G. Tyner announced.

Jamal Campos, 25, was arrested Tuesday morning and charged with first degree Strict Liability Homicide Drug Induced Death, first degree Leader of a Narcotics Trafficking Network, third degree Possession with Intent to Distribute 100 Wax Folds of Heroin and third degree Possession of Heroin.

Investigators were led to Campos following an investigation into the overdose death of Adam O'Gara on April 22, 2016 in Egg Harbor Township. That investigation led to charges of third-degree possession of heroin, third-degree distribution of heroin, and first-degree Strict Liability Homicide for the Drug Induced Death of Adam O'Gara

Early Tuesday morning, Atlantic County Prosecutor's Office detectives along with law enforcement officers from multiple agencies searched 80 rooms at the Bayview Inn & Suites that was heavily damaged during Hurricane Sandy in 2012. Cash, narcotics and air soft guns were recovered during the execution of a search warrant.

A total of 33 people who were living at the property were removed, including men, women and children.

Seven dogs were recovered from the property and one pit bull dog was fatally shot by an Atlantic City Police Officer when the animal made an aggressive move towards the officers as they attempted to enter a room. Police located a 3-foot alligator in the pool and Animal Control
